2019 DATA SUMMARY

The Vermont Center for Crime Victim Services serves as a voice within government for the needs of victims of crime in Vermont, serving victims by:

- 1.) Providing direct services to victims of crime.
- 2.) Organizing and providing training for volunteers, community members, advocates, allied professionals and others on issues related to working with victims of crime.
- 3.) Soliciting and issuing grants for community and statewide programs working with victims of crime.

CCVS STATE AND LOCAL GRANT PROGRAMS

HOW MUCH DID WE DO?

CCVS's grants provide crucial services for the safety and security of Vermonters. Because CCVS is the hub for many victim service grant programs and key services, it is uniquely positioned to thoughtfully plan funding to avoid duplication.

Domestic and Sexual Violence Programing

Numerous CCVS grants support this crucial safety net, without which the lives of individuals impacted by domestic and sexual violence would be at risk in our state.

Supervised Visitation Programs (SVP)

Supervised Visitation Programs (SVPs) provide a neutral and safe space in which a child may have contact with a non-custodial parent. These programs are geographically situated to best serve all 14 counties. Absent of supervised visitation, people end up using other alternatives that are not as safe.

ADDITIONAL CCVS STATE AND LOCAL GRANT PROGRAMS

Child Advocacy Centers (CAC/SIUs)

Vermont's 13 Child Advocacy Centers house multi-disciplinary teams to make decisions about the investigation, treatment, management and prosecution of cases of child physical and sexual abuse and neglect. The CAC funding supports the coordination of wrap-around services to support the child and family.

The Vermont Victim Assistance Program

Advocates in the State's Attorneys' offices in all 14 counties empower victims of crime by helping them access the criminal justice system through empathy, support, information, resources, and referrals to community partners.

Legal Network for Crime Victims

Victims of Crime Act (VOCA) funding has made it possible for attorneys from seven state-wide legal service organizations to come together to help people who have suffered physical, financial or emotional harm because they were a victim of crime. They help with a wide range of legal issues resulting from victimization. Services are provided regardless of income, age, immigration status, cognitive or physical limitations. There is no cost for this service.

The Voice and Choice Demonstration Project: Restorative Justice Centers

In 2017, CCVS received proposals for a comprehensive statewide initiative, supporting dedicated victim liaisons at Vermont community, restorative and parallel justice programs.

Advocates Dedicated to Underserved Communities:

CCVS grants support specialized advocates who provide direct services and training to allied organizations to improve victim services specifically to elders, people with disabilities, people who are are deaf or hard of hearing, have limited English proficiency, have mental health issues, people living in rural isolation or indigenous people.
